I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate HyperTec Systems for having been selected as one of this year's VARBusiness 500 - the industry's definitive ranking by revenue of the top 500 Solution Providers, consultants, integrators and service organizations in North America. Your membership in this very distinguished - and highly respected - group readily identifies your organization as an industry leader to the Solution Provider community.

To assist you in promoting your 2002 VARBusiness 500 Award, we have created this winner's package filled with ideas, suggestions and support materials for print, press and online promotions. Included are:

- 2002 VARBusiness 500 Award certificate
- 2002 VARBusiness 500 FAQ's
- Press release template for external use
- Sample letter congratulating your staff on this outstanding achievement
- Quotes from our publisher and editorial director
- Online promotion suggestions including a link to the VARBusiness Web site
- 2002 VARBusiness 500 logo available online for reproduction in promotional materials
- Counter card proclaiming your 2002 VARBusiness 500 membership

For your added convenience, the contents of this winner's package are also available online at <http://www.varbusiness.com/vb500winner>

Once again, congratulations to everyone at HyperTec Systems on this impressive win. If you have any questions or need more information, please feel free to contact me at 516-562-7817 or by e-mail at achiarie@cmp.com.

Sincerely,
